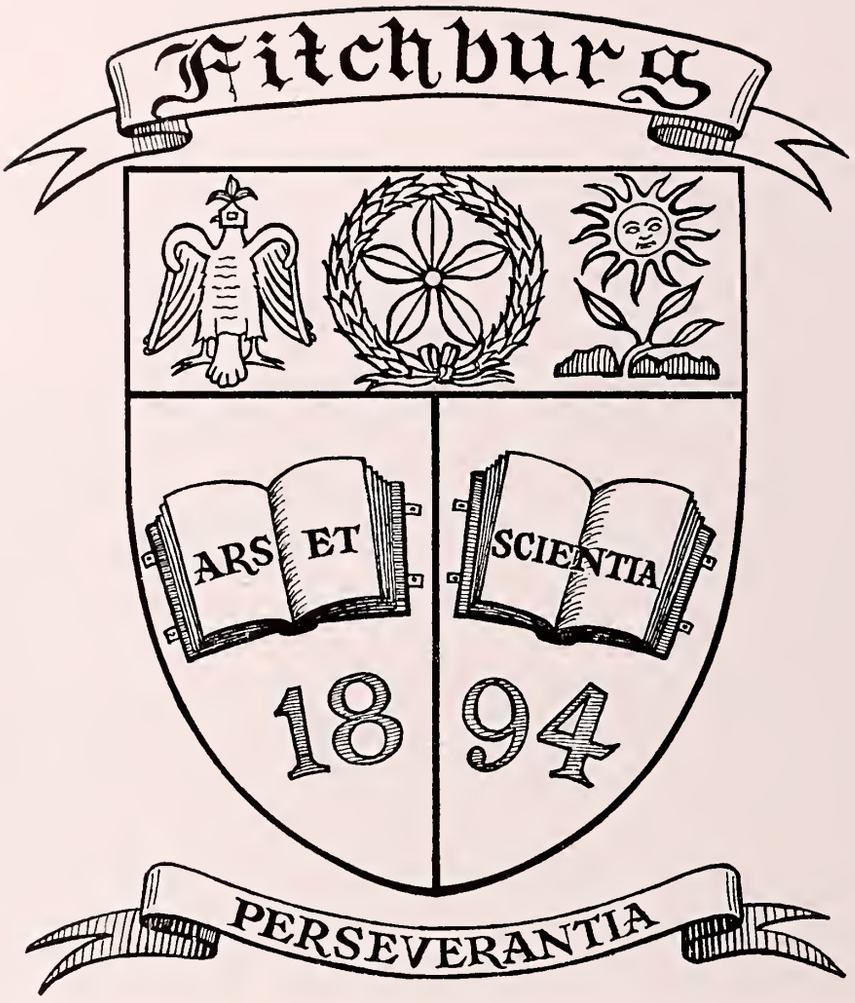
Fitchburg State College

Look to this day!
For it is life, the very life of life.
In its brief course lie all the varities and realities of your existence:
The bliss of growth;
The glory of action;
The splendor of beauty;
For yesterday is already a dream, and tomorrow is only a vision;
But today, well lived, makes every yesterday
A dream of happiness, and every tomorrow a vision of hope.
Look well, therefore, to this day!
Such is the salutation of the dawn!

from the Sanskrit



The Fitchburg State coat of arms features banners above and below a three part Gothic shield. The upper division consists of a gold hooded white falcon, the school athletic emblem; the white Saxifrage within a wreath of saxifrage leaves, the seal of 1900; and a golden sun shining over a seedling bursting through a rocky cover. The lower division contains two open books. On the left is a book inscribed with ARS, symbolizing the fields of the Arts. On the right is a book inscribed with the word SCIENTIA, symbolizing the fields of Science. The numbers 18 and 94 show our date of incorporation as a state school. Finally, the word Perseverantia, "achievement brought about by quiet will," became the School Motto in June, 1900.

As time

goes on

I realize

just what you mean

to me

And now,

now that you're near,

Promise your love

"What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us."

that I've waited to share . . .

and dreams,

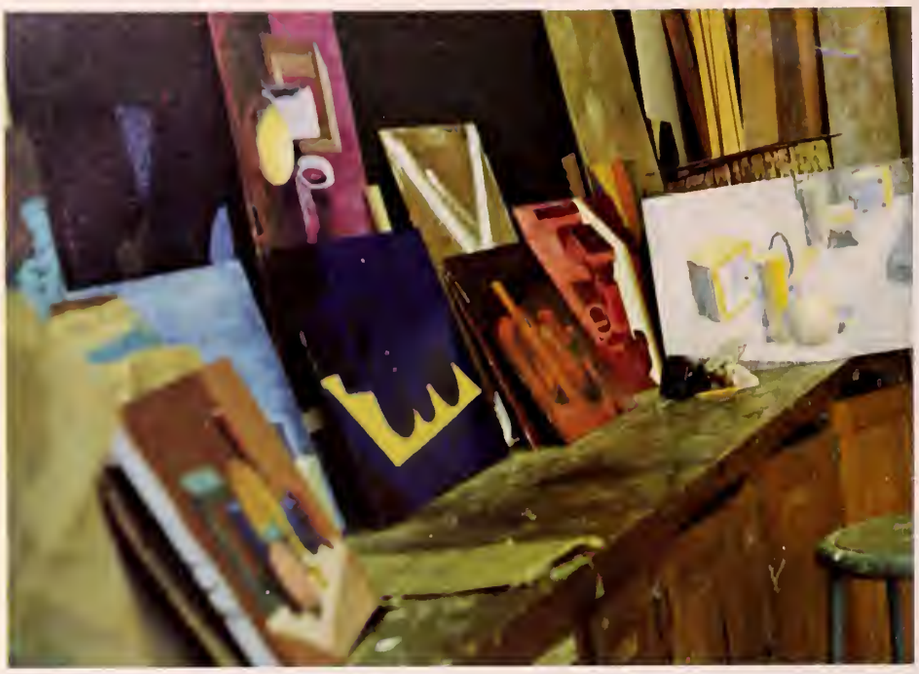
of our moments together.

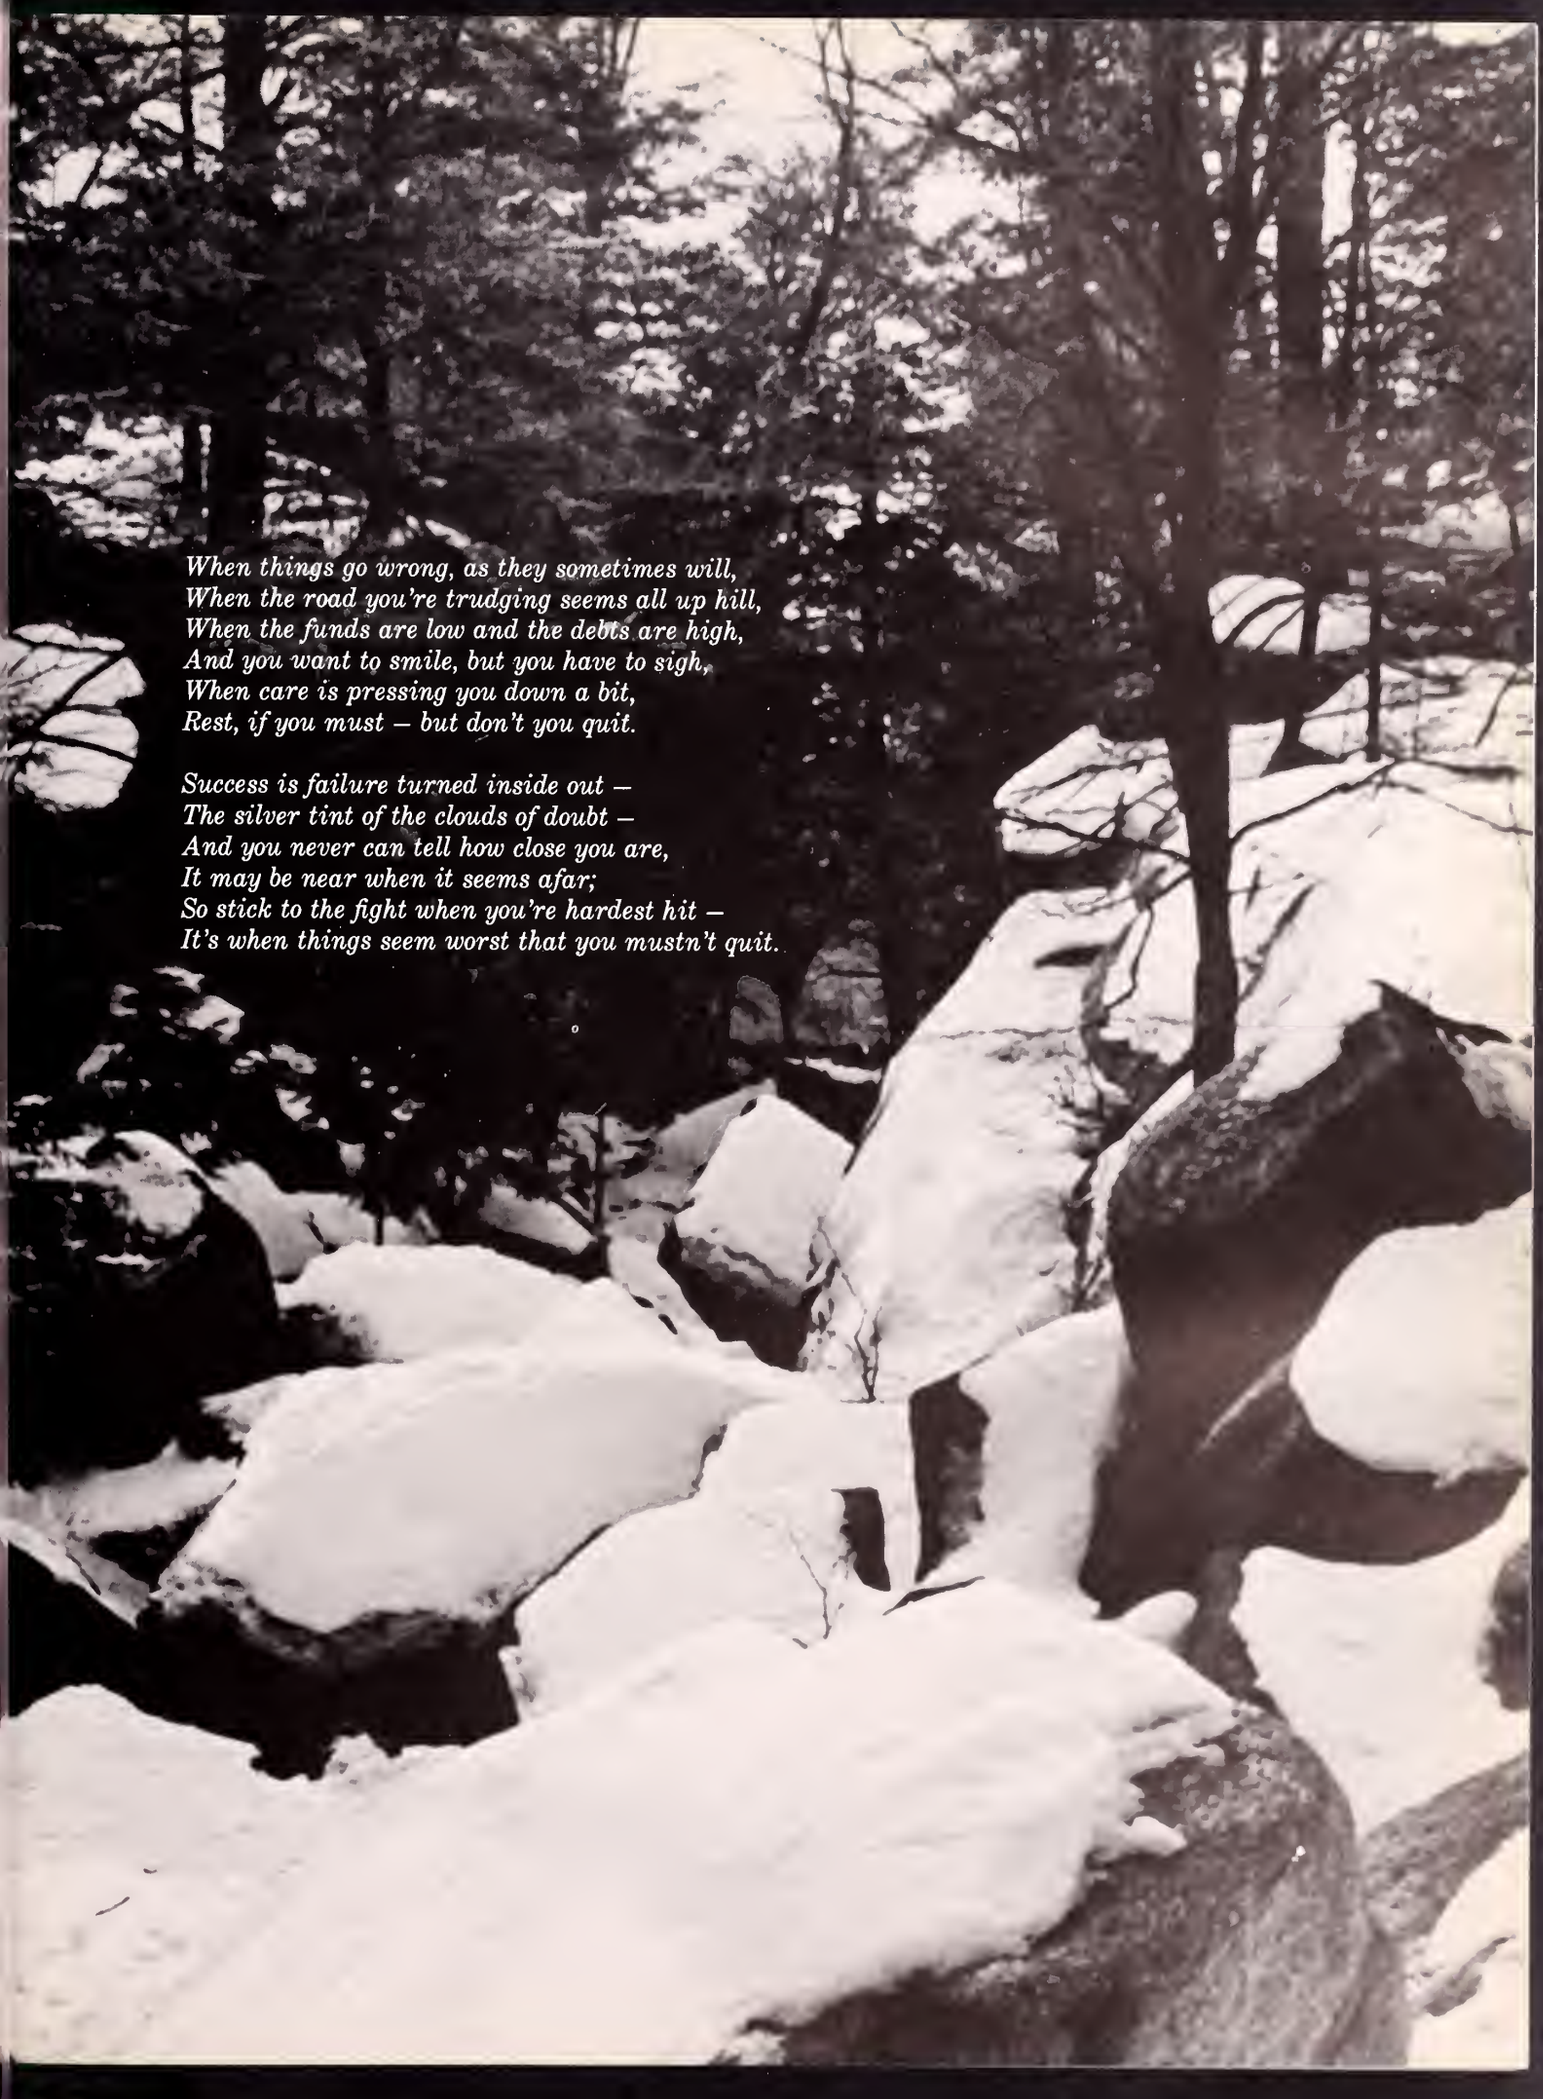
COLOR MY WORLD

with hope of loving you.

"Not in doing what you like, but in liking what you do is the secret of happiness."

(James Barrie)





When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all up hill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest, if you must – but don't you quit.

Success is failure turned inside out –
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt –
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems afar;
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit –
It's when things seem worst that you mustn't quit.

Wish I had that nose full of nickels.

Where's Rosie with the Bounty?

Would you believe a panty hose party?

Who is feerless fly?

I know you're good, but all I got is 99 cents.

Baliff, wack his peepee!

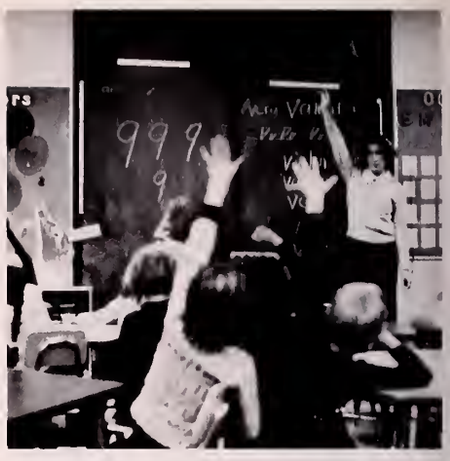
Killer!?

Oh. That morning sun.

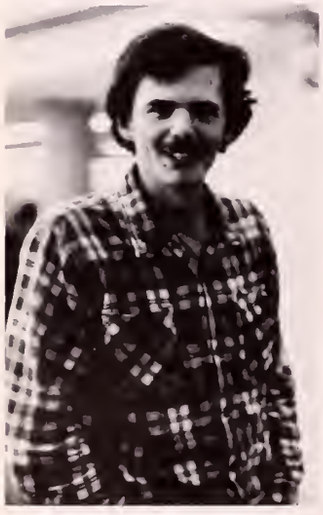
Come back, my breath isn't that bad!

Under what bridge,
for how many cookies?

Stanky feet!!



All those in favor of a lynching . . .



Ah shit, my flys down.

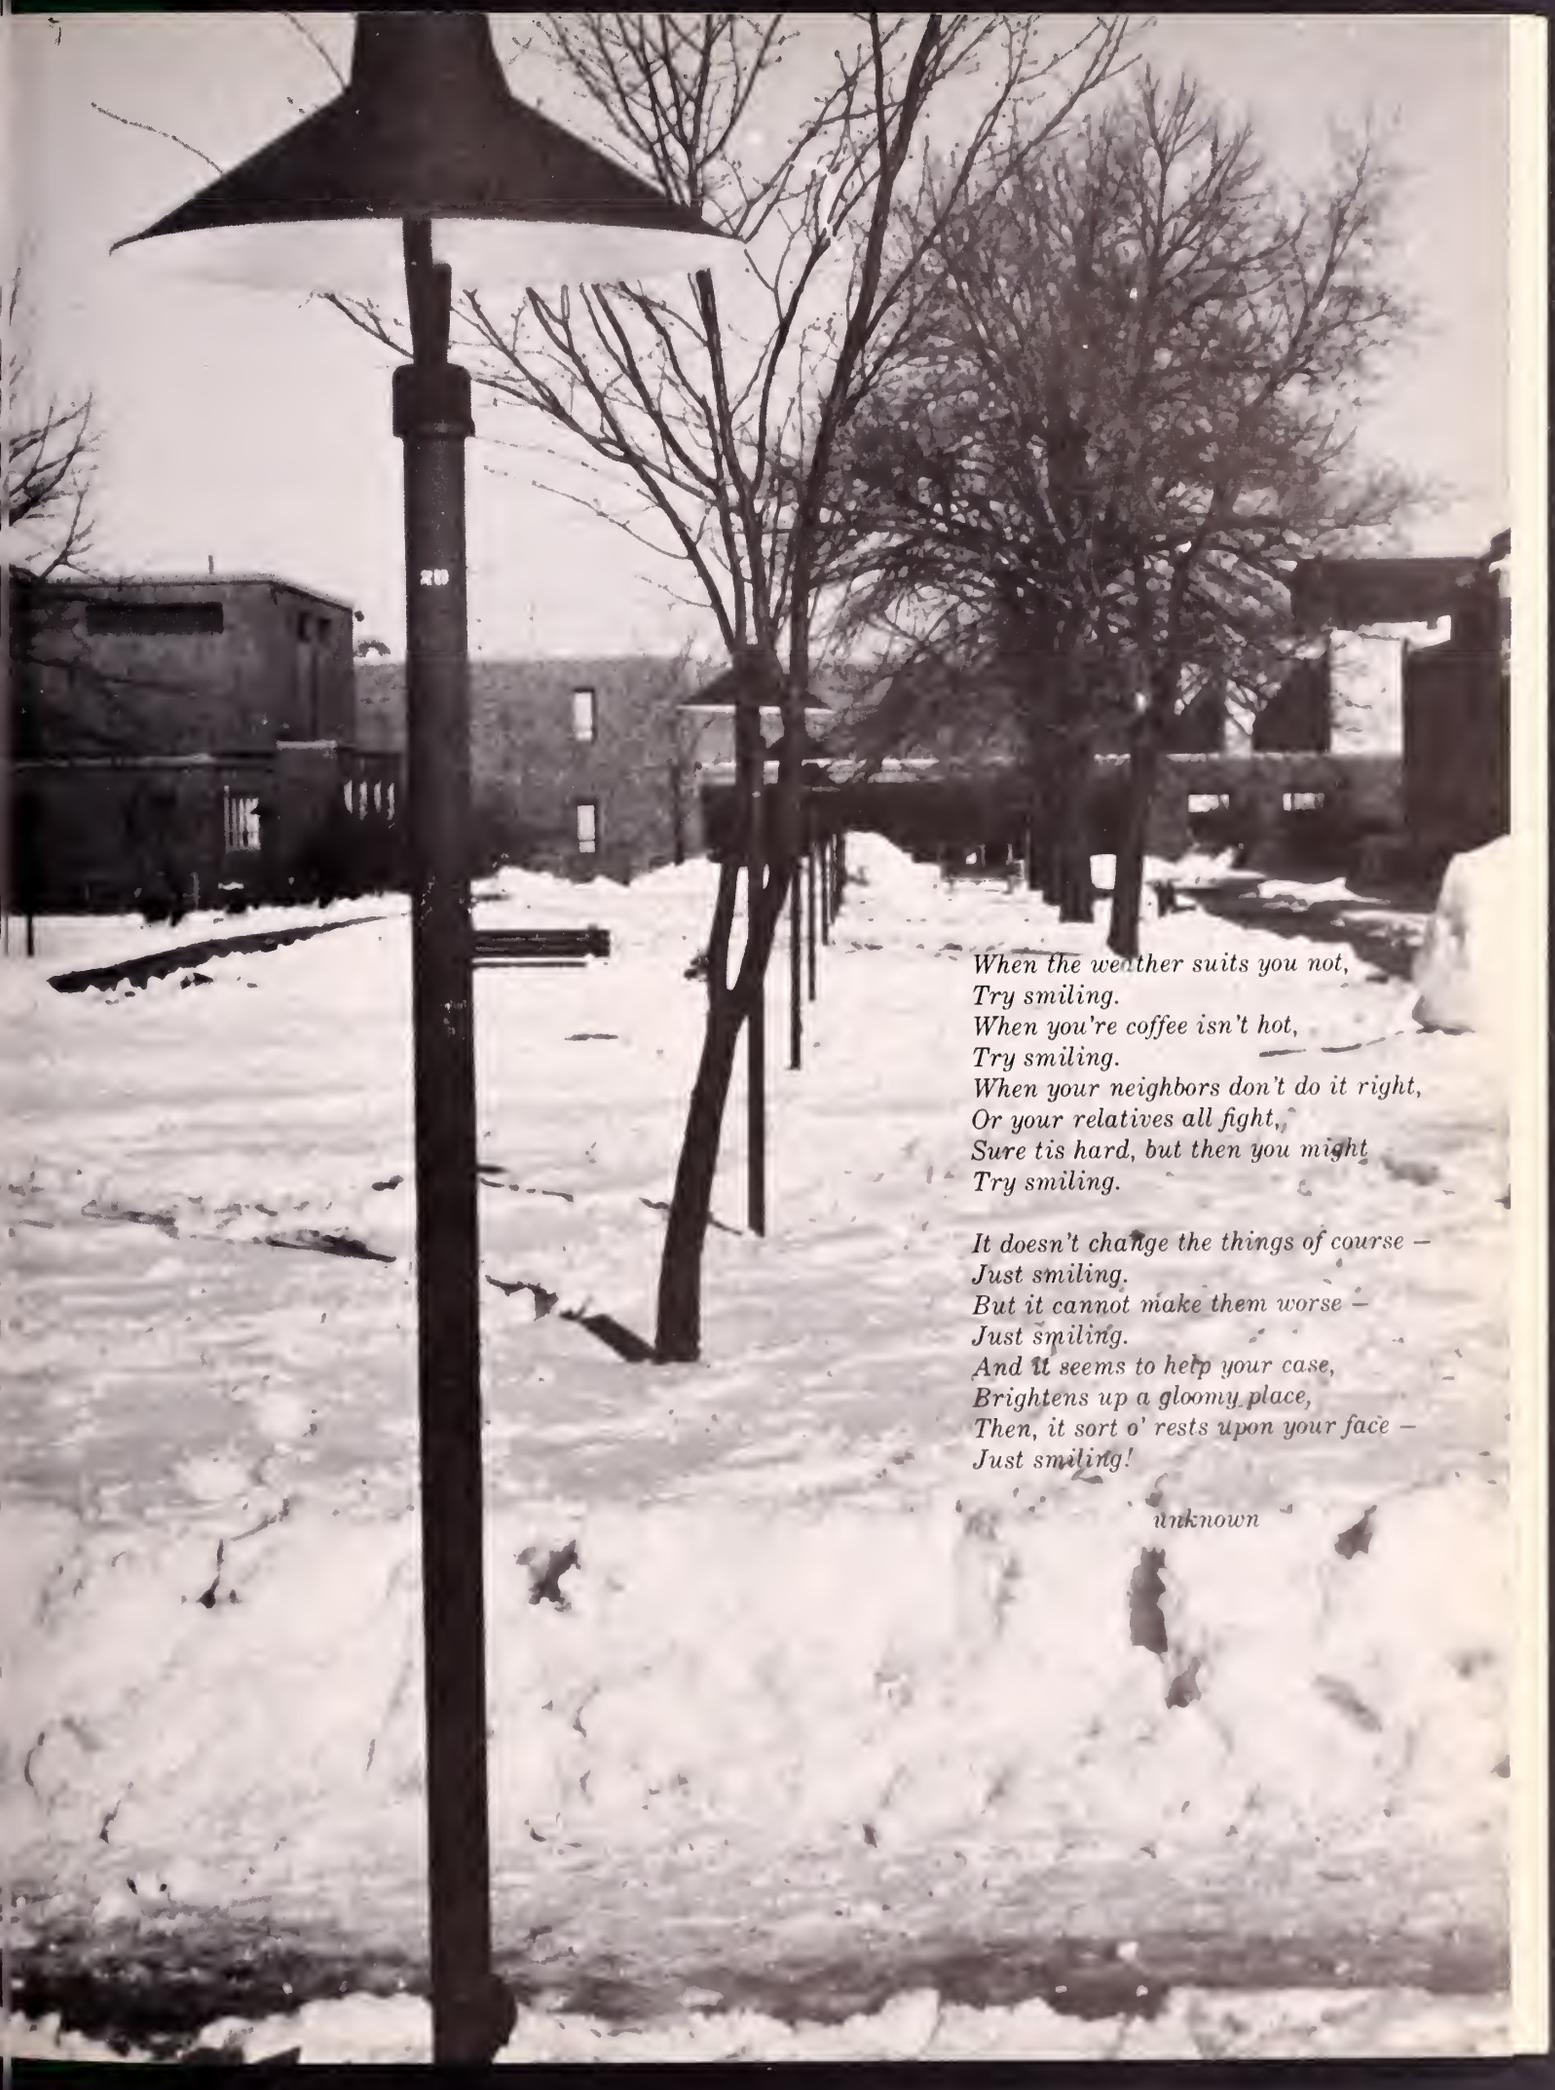
Boy, those beer farts really get to you!

Oooo cramps.

Who's confused?

It sure beats nursing.

Where did I hide that nudie?!



When the weather suits you not,
Try smiling.
When you're coffee isn't hot,
Try smiling.
When your neighbors don't do it right,
Or your relatives all fight,
Sure tis hard, but then you might
Try smiling.

It doesn't change the things of course –
Just smiling.
But it cannot make them worse –
Just smiling.
And it seems to help your case,
Brightens up a gloomy place,
Then, it sort o' rests upon your face –
Just smiling!

Count That Day Lost

If you sit down at set of sun
And count the acts that you have done,
And, counting find
One self-denying deed, one word
That eased the heart of him who heard,
One glance most kind,
That fell like sunshine where it went.
Then you may count that day well spent.

But, if thru all the livelong day,
You've cheered no heart, by yea or nay –
If, thru it all
You've nothing done that you can trace
That brought the sunshine to one face –
No act most small;
That helped some soul and nothing cost,
Then count that day as worse than lost.

You never really leave
a place you love;

Part of it you take with you,

leaving a part of you behind.
